Winning this event last year HARB (5) has taken a liking to the venue. Did well to return from a four-month break securing a narrow course and distance victory nineteen days ago. Raised 1.5kg for that effort and may strip fitter to complete a double. SECRET HANDSHEIKH (2) was a close-up fifth behind the main selection in that recent course handicap. Must be respected under a penalty carried for his commanding all-the-way Class Six success at Brighton (1100m) last time. SOUL SEEKER (1) cannot be ignored running off the same rating as when third over 1000m at Beverley in latest. MEDIA GUEST (6) also warrants consideration.

WILD NATURE (11) looked in need of the experience finishing second tackling track and trip on debut. The Charlie Appleby trained gelded son of Kingman may go one better here. PRINCE OF THE SEAS (6) shaped with plenty of encouragement finishing second at Kempton (1600m) first time out. Rates the chief danger racing for a stable in form. There could be further progress to come from GULTARI (9) who is a William Haggas trained filly. Put her head in front for the first time scoring narrowly over course and distance during August and might prove capable of defying this step back up in grade. OVERTURE (4) races for trainer Sir Mark Prescott. May complete the four-timer after backing up a course success over 2000m with victories at Nottingham and Southwell. ALHATTAN (3) would hold major form claims on her runner-up effort at Newmarket (July) (2400m) two starts ago. Can bounce back adopting first-time tongue-tie. LINCOLN ROCKSTAR (2) was in excellent form prior to finding things too tough tackling a competitive 2800m handicap at Haydock last time. Recent Kempton winner CARPATHIAN (9) is unexposed with the journey and cannot be ignored despite being raised in standard.
