GIANT (4) continues to hold his form well. Can return to winning ways after going down narrowly over course and distance recently. Holds solid claims receiving a nice draw with Oisín Murphy booked. RAJINDRI (5) produced a fine effort after an eight month absence finishing second at Yarmouth (1400m). Must enter calculations racing off the same mark. Newcastle winner AKKADIAN THUNDER (2) is two from five on the AW and hard to rule out with this revised rating. BRASIL POWER (6) caught the eye when second tackling 1600m here last start. Include.

BELIEVE IN STARS (2) gave a decent horse weight at Goodwood last season before finishing runner-up behind a solid yardstick over 2000m at Chelmsford during November. The Sir Michael Stoute team are in fine form at present and this unexposed five-year-old is worth considering. DAVIDEO (1) could do better now dropping back to Class Three company after being gelded during the winter. LISEO (4) cannot be ruled out having won attempting 2200m here in April. ARTISAN DANCER (5) went well when fourth tackling 2500m at Newcastle recently. Unlikely to be far away off an unchanged mark.

GLOBAL TYCOON (6) was narrowly denied at Brighton (2000m) and Wolverhampton (2400m) past two outings. The Joseph Parr trained gelding deserves a change of fortunes and can come out on top. Recent well-backed Newcastle (2000m) winner FEDERATED (7) represents shrewd connections. ASSEMBLED (10) goes well fresh and cannot be left out of calculations on first outing since winning a 2400m handicap at Wolverhampton in November. ARTAVIAN (2) also warrants consideration.
