HERB FENNEL (4) finished well clear of the rest recording a decent runner-up effort at Chester. BAMBOO BAY (4) kept on gamely under Rhys Elliott delivering a narrow victory over the distance at Redcar. Will have a small rise in weights to contend with. Won off much higher marks in the past. Key player. RORY THE CAT (1) is a versatile gelding who was a comfortable 2.5L course and distance winner two-runs ago. Found the extended journey here a stretch too far last time. All five wins since switching to the Lucinda Russell yard have come in this combination of headgear. Respect. Each-way claims go the way of STRIKE RATE (7) and CRYSTAL GUARD (5) with market confidence for either a bonus.

This looks like being the most testing ground that GARIFULLINA (3) will have encountered however will be freshened since July and can handle conditions. She won back-to-back handicaps over 1200m at Thirsk and Redcar during the summer and can complete a belated hat-trick. SHARK TWO ONE (2) enjoys soft ground. Looked as though his turn was coming when third at Thirsk (1200m) last month. MINTANA (8) placed all three outings on soft ground and showed up well finishing fourth at Wolverhampton (1200m) recently. Each-way claims go the way of TOO MUCH TOO YOUNG (11).

Producing a commanding victory over 2800m at this venue recently THE DANCING POET (2) looks well-poised to complete a double here with Shay Farmer taking off 3.5kg. BULLDOG SPIRIT (4) will face different conditions to when winning at Haydock (2800m) during August. Can be taken seriously representing small stable in great form. Top-weight CROESO CYMRAEG (1) ran third over 2300m at Haydock and is too well-treated to ignore back on soft ground. The William Haggas-trained BITTALEMOM (7) completes the shortlist.
