BOSTON RUN (1) caught the eye flashing home to finish second tackling a 1400m novice event at Haydock on debut. This Hugo Palmer trained son of Churchill will have learnt plenty that day and can get off the mark now stepping up to 1600m. Nicely-bred RAULIN (4) could know his job debuting and may prove the biggest danger. Bringing more experience CASTLE STUART (3) holds sound form claims on the back of finishing third at Haydock. The market can reveal more as to what is expected from CHLOE'S COURAGE (6).

Revisiting softer ground is a big plus for IMPERIAL EXPRESS (3) and the Andrew Balding trained filly travels to Scotland for this having looked well-ahead of the handicapper winning at Ffos Las. Possibly found the ground too quick in a stronger contest at Goodwood last time. GOLDEN MELODY (5) was denied a nose attempting a 2100m handicap at Chester. William Haggas maintains an excellent 29% strike-rate when sending horses to Hamilton. THE REVEREND (2) can well put his experience to good use now up significantly in trip. Produced a successful debut on soft ground at Newmarket (Rowley) toward the back end of last year and may return to winning ways having encountered a very smart prospect at Thirsk (1600m) in July.
