KYLE OF LOCHALSH (2) came from off the pace to finish a good third behind TEMPORIZE (4) over 3300m at Newbury last-time-out. Races for Hughie Morrison and will have no problem stepping back up in trip. Armed with a swing in the weights and can be selected to gain his revenge. The latter who won this prize twelve months ago was given a canny ride off the front that day and must be respected off a 1.5kg higher mark. SUPER SUPERJACK (16) looked in need of the run when sixth at Ascot (2800m). Might appreciate going back up in trip. GET SHIRTY (6) makes for each-way appeal.

Winner of the G1 Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint last year BIG EVS (9) could only finish third behind ASFOORA (3) attempting the G1 King Charles III Stakes at Royal Ascot in June. There are reasons to believe he can reverse the outcome as previous course form counts for plenty at this venue and with that in mind is selected to reverse placings from a fair draw. The latter landed her maiden G1 in the previous event and must be greatly respected despite being drawn out in stall ten. BELIEVING (4) carries a penalty for her recent G2 Sapphire Stakes victory at the Curragh (1000m) and cannot be ignored. STARLUST (12) is also considered.

MY PROSPERO (1) stands out on official ratings. Can manage a successful reappearance racing for William Haggas. Went well after a break in the past and with proven G1 form may come out on top delivering first outing since finishing seventh in the G1 Champion Stakes at Ascot during October. CICERO'S GIFT (2) looked a group horse in the making when defying top-weight attempting a competitive Sandown handicap last time. Could prove the biggest danger especially were conditions to ease. CAIRO (6) wasn't disgraced finishing eighth tackling the G1 Queen Anne Stakes in June and needs to be included down in grade. The unexposed PRAGUE (5) might still have more to offer.

George Scott has been amongst the winners of late and MISSION COMMAND (7) looks potentially well-treated off this opening mark. Produced a good third in a warm maiden at Doncaster prior to getting off the mark over 1000m at Ripon. Will appreciate going back up to 1200m. THE DRAGON KING (5) managed to defy the penalty over 1000m at Windsor last time and cannot be left out of calculations now up to 1200m delivering initial handicap outing. Haydock (1200m) second SEX ON FIRE (3) may get involved up 1.5kg. RARE CHANGE (16) also makes for plenty of appeal.

A competitive race. WAFEL (9) is a lightly-raced gelding who duly obliged in a Hamilton maiden at very short odds last time. There is substance to his earlier form and with further progress expected now up in trip a successful handicap debut is anticipated.
