This can go to G1 Derby fifth ALDERMAN (1). Ran a stormer behind a noted performer when beaten 7.25L at Epsom and on the up can continue progressing. Likely to enjoy an increase in distance and looks the one to beat here. DEL MARO (2) rates next best. Stepped up again when only a nose second in the G2 Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot last time out. Holds solid form and must be considered. POINT OF LAW (5) was only beaten 1.5L in the Queen's Vase. Open to further improvement so warrants thought. GALIYAN (3) was a beaten favourite in the Queen's Vase. Still open to potential and could turn that form around. One to consider.

INNER CITY BLUES (3) looks an outstanding prospect and could be hard to stop. Delivered on expectations when debuting with an impressive 2L triumph attempting a 1200m York novice. Up in grade but holds G1 entries and is a colt with big potential. Could prove too good. ADAAY OF SCARLETT (1) brings the best form after a 0.5L second in the G2 Coventry Stakes at Royal Ascot. GRIZEDALE (1) appears seven days on from a 0.5L Kempton Class Four handicap victory. In form and finds a similar opportunity here. Jason Watson takes over and rates a among the key players. STORM POINT (11) brings two wins from three starts this year. Latest victory came over course and distance. Though tackling a tougher assignment is one of the likely winners. NAKAAHA (7) also brings form attempting the journey here. In good shape after a 1.75L Bath Class Five handicap victory last week. Top chance. SIGNCASTLE CITY (9) proved popular running 2.75L fifth here and producing two fine placed efforts before that will be popular again.

ASTRACORNUS (4) showed rapid progress when a 2.5L winner in a Class Five Nottingham handicap nineteen days ago. Clearly thrived for the switch to handicaps and appears to be on the up. Might not be finished yet. Key player. WINDBREAKER (6) is fitted with cheekpieces for the first time. Only denied by a head contesting a 1900m Wolverhampton Class Five handicap and should develop further. Finds a nice opportunity for a breakthrough. MAGICIAN OF RIGA (2) missed on a hat-trick running 1L third attempting a 1900m Wolverhampton Class Five handicap. Can bounce back. LA PEREGRINA (4) can gain compensation for a short head defeat last time contesting the 2400m Goodwood Class Five handicap. That was a much improved effort and he can develop further. Longer trip may again prove the right move. KAKIRRA (6) is seeking a four-timer. Last victory was a 2400m Class Six handicap win at Wolverhampton by a head. This is harder but could be in the mix. TWO PLUS TWO (2) was beaten a nose attempting a 2800m Class Six handicap at Nottingham. Given another good chance here and looks a major player. LUSAKA (1) is another to note.
