Just two runners declared with APULIA BAY (2) preferred following his second at Beverley last month. The in-form Simon and Ed Crisford stable maintain a 48% strike-rate with two-year-olds on turf this season boasting ten winners from twenty-one starts at the time of writing. Further progress expected attempting the longer journey. Major player racing third-up. TIME FOR THE MOON (1) built on a debut 1L third at Haydock to readily open his account next time with a 7.5L Musselburgh success. Never threatened in a pair of subsequent Listed contests at Ascot. Climbs in trip and dangerous to dismiss back at this level.

BLESSED VOYAGER (1) was always doing enough when a head winner on racecourse debut at Newbury in April with Hector Crouch aboard. Slowly into stride before keeping on for a 1.5L second of seven effort as favourite tackling the trip at Thirsk last month. Big performance anticipated second-up. JEYOUS (3) wears a tongue-tie on first outing for the in-form Simon and Ed Crisford yard. This two-year-old colt by Army Mule out of Airborne Gal is one to keep a close eye on in the betting. BADDADDAN (2) shaped with promise debuting with a fair fourth under George Wood at Newbury. Open to plenty of improvement. Respect.

FREE WORLD (1) shed the maiden tag in style making all to deliver an easy 7L Catterick triumph on first try at the distance last week. May go back-to-back. Serious player. HOPE RISING (3) is two from seven attempting the journey after gaining her maiden flat success with a comfortable 5.5L win at Lingfield earlier in the month. BONE MARRA (1) almost went back-to-back last time in a 1400m Class Four Wolverhampton handicap and finds another good opportunity. Finished well to win a Class Four Southwell handicap over 1200m before that and is a leading chance on form so may prove too good off top weight. THREE NON BLONDES (4) showed improvement when scoring a Class Four 1400m Yarmouth handicap. Billy Loughnane takes over now and rates a danger with potential improvement to come. SOUFFLER (6) is interesting off a 293-day break. Last seen winning a Newmarket novice tackling this trip in October. Warrants thought making handicap debut.
