NAVID (5) relished the step up to 2816m winning by 2L at Salisbury last time out. Now 3.5kg higher retaining the potential to progress again after just nine starts. KENTUCKY RIVER (1) powered to a 7L victory at Pontefract (3419m) on Sunday. Likely well-in under a penalty and must be taken seriously. MASTERDREAM (4) is a previous course and distance winner who drops below his last winning mark. Holds recent successful hurdle form. Demands respect. SIMIYANN (2) has also been eased to a workable rating and is another to consider.

COOLMORE WOOTTON BASSETT NUNTHORPE ...

Tackling 1000m on quick ground looks to bring the best out of ARIZONA BLAZE (9). Trained by Adrian Murray and steadily progressive so could prove capable of following up his recent success in the G2 Sapphire Stakes at the Curragh. No two-year-old has landed this prize since 2007 however it would be foolish to ignore both LADY IMAN (16) and SPICY MARG (17). The former looked a filly with immense ability winning the G3 Molecomb Stakes at Goodwood and could easily defy the noted stat while the latter is likely capable of better than already shown and could go well up in grade following her conditions race success at the same venue. Australian raider ASFOORA (10) performed better than the bare result of both her starts this season. Holds strong form claims if replicating her G1 King Charles III Stakes win last year.
