ISLE OF SARK (1) can repeat his career-best at the track. Climbs slightly in weight tackling a weaker race than the Southwell contest he finished seventh in seventeen days ago. Makes appeal with the quicker ground in his favour. Sedgefield specialist TOM CREEN (4) deserves respect. Ran third over the course and distance last time and with a competitive handicap can score here for a sixth time. CLONAKILTY (2) cannot be discounted having undergone wind surgery. Disappointed recently however is a contender on his 2024 novice efforts. MAGGIES BOY (5) warrants thought on the pick of his form last season.

WENDYWILLDO (5) is worth a market check resuming after a year off having switched to the Patrick Neville yard. CLONQUEST (2) caught the eye on debut in December going close finishing just 0.75L second at Newcastle contesting a 1400m event in January. Tackles turf for the first time and finds ideal opportunity to shed the maiden tag. SAYIDAH ALEEN (9) has a nice pedigree. Looked a work in project when finishing last of four debuting ten days ago at Wolverhampton. Needs to take a step forward however it is still early days. ARC AT HER (7) is a debutante related to winners over a variety of distances. Finds a nice starting point and could be worth noting. MY BALLYQUINN (3) might prove one to watch for the future.

All-weather horse of the year YORKSHIRE GLORY (6) arrives back on turf seeking a seventh straight win after scoring a 1200m contest at Newcastle a fortnight ago. Now has to carry his largest weight however in this form looks hard to oppose. JUAN LES PINS (1) proved a fine horse throughout the years and remains in good condition after finishing second over 1000m at Doncaster twelve days ago. One to consider. BELSITO (7) disappointed on soft ground at Pontefract in October. This better ground will see him to better effect. MARK'S CHOICE (2) won twice at Ripon end of last season and warrants a market check ahead of his hat-trick bid.
