WAY OF LIFE (4) has been a model of consistency in recent outings. Joe Leavy takes off a valuable 2.5kg and it would hardly be surprising were he to go one spot better than when denied a neck over 2300m at Windsor last time. The 10L Salisbury (2000m) winner KOTARI (10) faces very different conditions here however must be included under a penalty. THINK FIRST (1) was runner-up tackling 2400m at Epsom in April. GREAT BEDWYN (8) cannot be discounted.

Kempton novice winner TOPANGA (7) was out of her depth when fifth in the G3 Fred Darling Stakes at Newbury on reappearance. That race did have substance with the third going on to land the G1 1000 Guineas. Stepping up to 1600m looks a plus and she can make a winning handicap debut. FLYING FINN (10) looks progressive based on her stylish Doncaster win. Danger to all if handling the anticipated quicker surface. ZOUZANNA (4) won a 1400m Class Four handicap here last season. Testing conditions would have been far from ideal for RAMAZAN (3) when he finished runner-up at Thirsk on reappearance. Produced an excellent second among Listed company at Redcar last October and looks the one to beat when taking into account a Joe Leavy 2.5kg claim. MOSTABSHIR (5) remains lightly raced. MAGICO (3) did well to provide a narrow winning handicap debut over 1600m at Kempton in November. This is certainly her toughest assignment to date but CIARA PEARL (4) may prove equal to it. The progressive Kubler-trained filly completed a hat-trick over 2000m at Bath last time and can add to the winning total. It was a warm novice event that WARDA JAMILA (6) finished sixth in under her penalty at Newbury on reappearance. Tough to leave her out of calculations making handicap debut. Fellow handicap debutante TURN UP THE HEAT (7) might also appreciate this longer trip. MISS ALPILLES (8) also stretches out in distance and could feature at the business end

Trainer Ralph Beckett won an Oaks Trial at Chester earlier in the week and may well land another here courtesy of TREASURE (6). The daughter of Mastercraftsman impressed scoring on debut over 1700m at Nottingham last season and will relish this step up in trip. Wide-margin Wetherby winner DANIELLE (3) looked good and must be respected representing top yard. Trained by Aidan O'Brien-RUBIES ARE RED (5) cannot be ruled out after following home a useful performer when second in a 2000m Leopardstown maiden. YOU GOT TO ME (7) completes the shortlist.

ILLINOIS (5) may strip fitter for finishing third in the G3 Ballysax Stakes at Leopardstown on reappearance. This extra distance will suit and Aidan O'Brien can land another Derby Trial. Roger Varian trained horses have been needing their first run this season and DEFIANCE (4) returned to action delivering an excellent second in the 2000m Listed Blue Riband Trial Stakes at Epsom. Could prove the biggest danger with that outing under his belt. THE EUPHRATES (9) finished runner-up in the aforementioned Ballysax Stakes. After winning at Doncaster as a two-year-old it was disappointing SKY WARRIOR (2) could only beat one home under the penalty at Kempton on reappearance. It is still early days for this Clive Cox trained entry and he can make an immediate impact now switching to handicaps. Narrow handicap debut Southwell (1400m) winner INNER TEMPLE (1) could remain competitive off this revised mark. NEVER FEAR (4) won twice tackling this trip last year.
