FLAT TURF GOOD Participants #16

Trainer Ralph Beckett can do no wrong at present. He landed this prize twelve months ago with a useful recruit and may do so again courtesy of the well-bred Frankel colt MAGNETITE (7) out of the G1 winning mare Attraction. Charlie Appleby trained newcomers need little introduction and his Dubawi gelding CHARMING LIFE (2) must be respected. WHITE CROWN STAR (16) looks the pick of those with experience after finishing third behind a promising performer over 1400m at Yarmouth. NOBLE CHAMPION (10) might handle conditions on debut.

MARCHING MAC (1) proved a revelation in recent outings winning three of his last four. The Phil McEntee trained gelding carries a 3kg penalty for his 11L victory at Leicester (1000m) earlier in the week and can complete a hat-trick. Neither trip nor ground will pose any issues for the Windsor runner-up KISS AND RUN (4) who warrants respect. LITTLE MISS MAGIC (10), is better off at the weights with the main selection than when third at Brighton earlier this month. JUNGLE RUN (6) could find the frame.

Conditions will suit ASTRONOMICA (11) and her turn might be near again. She produced another sound effort among this company when second at Leicester and could be primed to strike following four runs this campaign. MARSH BENHAM (1) returns to the same grade he won at Brighton (1600m) two starts ago. JACK SPAROWE (2) warrants a market check racing for shrewd connections.
