KING'S CHARTER (1) is a Charlie Appleby trained gelding. Returned to action with a smooth success in a novice event at Doncaster last month and could have more to offer now stepping up to 2000m making handicap debut. The progressive KURAKKA (4) won nicely over further making handicap debut at Haydock and cannot be ignored with further improvement likely. URBAN GLIMPSE (7) could be in the mix following good second-place finishes attempting similar handicaps at Sandown and York. REGALIAN (6) and WAR HAWK (5) are others to note.

All eyes will be on the unbeaten VENETIAN SUN (6). This Karl Burke trained filly created a huge impression winning the 1200m G3 Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot last time and is suited by this track. Charlie Appleby trains ENDLESS VICTORY (1) who caught the eye when seventh in a handicap tackling this trip at Royal Ascot last time. Dropping back to 1400m looks positive for BRAVE MISSION (7) who is trained by Ralph Beckett. Produced a good second off this mark at Ascot before finishing midfield in a fierce handicap at the same venue. Well suited by this test and is preferred. EMINENCY (9) arrives following a neck second attempting 1200m at Goodwood a month ago. The improving UP THE PACE (10) is now three from six on turf and needs to be included after producing a commanding win over this distance at Doncaster. STERLING KNIGHT (5) shaped nicely when fourth tackling 1600m here. May provide a bold showing now back down in trip.
