Just a small field. Karl Burke is coming off the back of another magnificent season with his juveniles while KODI BEAR LIGHT (3) is related to several quick horses. Anticipate no problem getting off the mark on this occasion. HICKORY LAD (1) warrants thought. Was a fair second debuting at Thirsk two weeks ago. Will have improved since then and holds every chance. STATE OF GOLD (4) wasn't without support on debut before looking in need of the experience. Will come on for that outing and is sure to be a different proposition on this occasion. STAY ON TAB (2) is best watched until attempting a nursery.

PIVOTAL TERMS (6) disappointed both starts on turf as a juvenile. Made gradual progress on the all-weather this winter. Deserves respect after her victory at Newcastle a fortnight ago and the drop in trip is unlikely to be an issue. FILLE UNIQUE (2) remains a maiden. Was only held by a neck at Newcastle a week ago. Could give a bold show. RIFFA SPIRIT (1) narrowly got off the mark in August however has disappointed since. Not without promise making stable debut earlier in the month and cannot be ruled out. GILLALI LASS (7) arrives after a layoff. Worth giving close consideration if supported in the market.

AS FAST AS WIND (1) remains fit after a profitable if not successful period jumping. Did score on her last turf flat start at Salisbury in August. Interesting to see if she attracts support but rates the one to beat. COUGAR (2) disappointed on his seasonal return at Thirsk and will need to step forward from that outing. Importantly blinkers are reapplied and cannot be taken lightly. BLONDINA (6) continues a maiden in both codes. Might find this much more realistic than the flat assignments in Ireland. One to watch.
