SYDNEY ROCK (2) can build on a good second seven days ago shaping nicely missing by 0.5L a 1400m Chepstow Class Five handicap. That was a big return to form and could take advantage of a falling handicap mark. This three-time runner-up is poised for a breakthrough. AMATHUS (6) won at the track last time. Should be a key player on form of a neck victory contesting a 1400m Class Six handicap. Major contender. KIMEKO GLORY (1) has first-time cheekpieces added. Must build on a recent fourth trying 2000m in a Class Five Sandown handicap. DECALOGUE (3) is another aided by new headgear. Decent latest effort when 1.5L third in a 1600m Class Five Newmarket handicap.

TIORA TIME (1) can defy a penalty here. Built on a fine debut third in a 1400m Epsom maiden when gaining an impressive 2L victory in a 1300m Doncaster maiden twelve days ago. Was strongly supported that day and likely to be popular again. Brings leading form and Colin Keane now takes over. Strong chance. FLOODING (3) is ridden by Oisín Murphy. Can improve from a promising 2L debut second contesting a 1400m Newmarket maiden. Looks a likely chance. ALL ANGELS (2) should step forward from a debut 5.5L sixth trying a 1200m Windsor novice. One to watch in the betting. POLGARIA (5) must improve on back-to-back eighth-place finishes.

Just two runners line up in this contest. SERENETTA (1) looks the most likely winner. Advanced from a 3L Newmarket 1400m novice third to win stylishly at Kempton by 1.5L attempting a 1400m novice. Juddmonte's main jockey Colin Keane travelled from Ireland for that ride and is a rare visitor at Salisbury too. That indicates confidence behind this well-touted prospect who should be too good for her sole challenger here at extremely short odds. REFORMATION (2) has been gelded ahead of debut. Nice profile on paper being by No Nay Never and out of a three-time winning mare. The Oisin Murphy booking is positive. Tough ask first time out.

INDIAN LIGHTS (3) is expected to take a major step forward from a nice introduction when producing a 2.75L fourth attempting a 1400m Newmarket maiden twenty six days ago. That was a fine start and progression from that initial effort is expected. Given a good opportunity this time. SIENA STORM (5) also may come forward from a 2L debut fourth contesting a 1400m Goodwood maiden. Managed to take on better opposition there so rates a definite player against this line-up. One of the likely winners. CLARITY (2) finished one place behind the just mentioned at Goodwood. That was her second outing and experience could be handy here.
