MELON TWIST (6) is closely related to six handy performers including the Group-placed Endless Joy. Feared making racecourse debut. CUAN (1) is open to plenty of improvement. Shortlist.

TAFSIR (3) boasts three turf wins. Placed in all three attempts over course and distance. Did not see out the longer journey here twelve-days ago. Can bounce back with a big run. Major player. BILLY BATHGATE (7) is without a win in twelve attempts since landing a similar handicap tackling track and trip last June. This Evan Williams trained gelding is attractively treated at the weights. Could prove hard beat if putting his best foot forward. Danger. KNIGHTS AFFAIR (1) and YAKHABAR (4) might improve. Monitor for any market moves.

Penultimate start Sedgefield winner BIG BEE HIVE (5) was well held finishing second at the same venue subsequently. In the mix. HATTONS GARDENS (3) may place racing second-up.

Disappointed when seventh in a bumper (3200m) at this track first-up from a spell. Better placed here and expecting an improved run.

Point-to-point winner JUST GINO (5) was favourite making Bangor racecourse debut. Could only manage fifth and not raced since. Bold bid anticipated especially if the market speaks in his favour again. JACKPOT CASH (4) has placed once from four runs under rules. Now fitted with a hood. Danger. KIOTO SUN (7) improved placing at Ffos Las. Warrants a market check first-up. HAARAR (2) arrives off the back of finishing second at Uttoxeter and at Thirsk. Shortlist.

GIULIETTA (6) placed in four hurdle runs including when just headed close to home last month at Ludlow. Leading player representing a yard amongst the winners. OUR NEL (3) continues to give a good account of herself without yet gaining that elusive win. Addition of a first-time tongue-tie could be the difference. Nineteen-race maiden HILLSIN (4) was unlucky to encounter a subsequent winner in the Captain Wallace at Exeter. Thereabouts. Any moves in the market for FLY AWHILE JOHNNY (5) are to be noted first-up.
