FREE WIND (3) wasn't seen to best effect when fifth in the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes on heavy ground at Ascot during October. The classy John and Thady Gosden trained mare made a winning reappearance in this event twelve months go. May do so once more. BLUESTOCKING (1) represents the Ralph Beckett yard. This Classic runner-up finished second in the aforementioned Ascot G1 and holds strong claims especially if the rain arrives. SAPPHIRE SEAS (6) is likely capable of better than she showed when second attempting the 1800m G2 Balanchine at Meydan in February. INFINITE COSMOS (4) finished third behind the just mentioned in the John Musker Fillies Stakes at Yarmouth last September. Could have more to offer this season.

A competitive race where six of the nine won last time out. LONDON CITY (1) is a well-bred son of Justify. Always looked to be doing enough up front when getting off the mark in a 2100m maiden at Dundalk during April. The Aidan O'Brien trained colt could improve tackling 2400m and this opening mark may underestimate his ability. PALACE GREEN (3) won a 2000m novice event at Kempton on reappearance and cannot be ignored now handicapping. Fellow handicap debutant COOL LEGEND (6) appreciated the 2200m trip when landing a maiden at the same venue in December.
