EAST INDIA DOCK (8) looked well ahead of his mark easily winning at Goodwood earlier in the month. The James Fanshawe team are delivering winners of late and with Ryan Moore booked this progressive stayer can shrug off the 3kg penalty. SUBSEQUENT (6) may relish these ground conditions. Made it two from three among handicap company with a smooth win at Newmarket (July) last time and racing for trainer Andrew Balding could have plenty more to offer now stretching out further in journey. Recent York winner SHADOW DANCE (1) is another likely to relish this sizeable step up in trip. QUANTUM LEAP (7) might feature representing yard in good form.

Plenty of collateral form to assess. Trainer Mick Appleby won this twelve months ago and he may well repeat the feat courtesy of BIG MOJO (4). This winner of the 1000m G3 Molcombe Stakes at Glorious Goodwood raced too freely when failing to see out the 1200m journey in the G2 Gimcrack Stakes (fourth) at York. Dropping back to 1000m is a major plus. MAGNUM FORCE (6) caught the eye running home late to finish a neck behind TROPICAL STORM (8) attempting the 1000m Listed Julia Graves Roses Stakes at York. This could prove tactical. GREGORY (2) secures rider James Doyle and rates the obvious pace angle by securing a potential easy lead. A tricky handicap where it could pay to focus on the two in-form chances CABRERA (4) and BINT AL DAAR (3). Competitive contest. Paul Midgley holds a strong hand and the consistent STRONG JOHNSON (10) may return to winning ways following two solid-placed efforts over 1000m at Hamilton and Ripon. Stablemate ROCK OF ENGLAND (3) could give a good account racing off the same mark as when runner-up tackling 1000m at Beverley. VALVANO (2) is a promising gelding yet to miss the frame in two starts including a win. Races for the first time since finishing second over 1600m at Kempton Park AW during April. Brings good early speed. Consider. MILITARY ACADEMY (1) found success debuting over 2200m at Hamilton Park. Will come on following that run and could prove tough to beat. AT NO TIME (6) is a three-year-old filly debuting for R M Beckett. By Galileo from Lucky Kristale and with any push in the betting will warrant respect. KING CHAOS (5) did a fair job on debut last time out running 2L third over 2000m at Windsor. Likely to improve. Include.
