OUR GUIDE (4) scored on her debut for previous connections and stayed on from off the pace making debut for this stable last month at Wetherby. Looks to have enough ability to account for this field. OCTOBER HILL (5) remains a maiden after ten starts. Only 4L away in a first time tongue strap at Ludlow last month. Rates highly and warrants respect. GETONE (1) offered little in Ireland. Not disgraced when too keen in a selling novice hurdle here ten days ago. One for handicaps further down the line. GRANPA GER (2) hasn't been seen since finishing fifth at Ludlow in November. Exposed but this is realistic.

TARITINO (7) has been busy the past few months. Held his form over further at Plumpton when last seen. Faces a tough ask now with a higher weight but is consistent. Newton Abbot specialist STINGINHISSTEP (6) returns from a seven month absence after finishing third at the track where he's achieved both his wins. This is likely to be a warm up for a return there. One to consider if supported. GREEN SKY (3) remains a hurdling maiden. Did offer some hope at Newton Abbot a fortnight ago when fourth beaten 2L. Respect. THIS SWAY (8) got off the mark on soft ground at Southwell. Will need more on this occasion.

ROXY ROCKS (5) looked in need of the debut experience at Taunton last month. Could take a big step forward on this more galloping track. Warrants serious thought particularly if supported. LA BAMBA CHICA (4) steps out on debut for the Jim and Suzi Best stable and is by Mount Nelson. Closely related to several good horses and is worth a market check. DUNSTALL STAR (3) is well-related. Not disgraced when green on heavy ground at Wincanton in January. Can handle the standard ahead and rates a major player. SHOW YOUR HAND (6) wears a tongue-tie having finished unplaced in a sales race at Newbury last month. Interesting.

CELTIC QUEEN (4) managed to take a step forward making her handicap debut at Hereford last month. Was only 11L away on that occasion having been outpaced close to home. Open to plenty of improvement and this looks an easier contest. MONSUN CLIMATE (1) received wind surgery since finishing third at Taunton in January. Goes handicapping for the first time but needs to settle better. PRAIRIE QUEEN (9) returns to hurdles after finishing third here tackling fences last week. Running to a similar level of form lately and holds every chance. THE PADSTER (5) is another handicap debutant. Given a wind operation since tailing off at Windsor. Worth a market check.

EUTROPIA (5) won two runs ago at Lingfield then followed up with a solid third beaten 1.75L over 1700m at Wolverhampton. This is tougher however she holds ability to bounce back. ANNEXATION (2) made the frame past two runs including a fourth beaten 2.5L over 1900m at Wolverhampton. Looks well positioned to run a big race. TOO MUCH TREVOR (8) was last seen finishing sixth trying 1500m at Ffos Las. Worth considering against this line up. AJRAD (3) resumed with a below par effort when seventh beaten 7L contesting a 1400m event at Lingfield. Will be fitter and capable of improving sharply to make presence felt.

GALAXY WONDER (2) was third two runs ago at Lingfield before improving to win by 0.5L attempting 1700m at Wolverhampton last time. This is a tougher race but still looks within his reach. MY AMBITION (4) returned from a break with a strong second over 1600m at Lingfield. Could prove hard to beat. OASIS SUNRISE (7) resumed recently finishing fifth beaten 4L tackling 1600m at this track. She will be fitter and is capable of featuring despite the rise in class. PITNEY (3) ran a solid race last time when third trying 1700m at Wolverhampton. Holds ability to be very competitive in this suitable race.

Back from a break of three-and-a-half months. Closed the last campaign in lukewarm fashion, with a eighth over 1900m at Wolverhampton the latest offering. Plenty of more attractive propositions in this race.
