CITY CYCLONE (3) returned from an unsuccessful hurdling spell to win a 1408m Wolverhampton handicap. More will be needed up 2kg in this higher grade. Could have what it takes. BEYLERBEYI (12) went close at Newcastle last month and competes from the same mark. Brings possibilities on just his third start for this yard. Course and distance winner AIRSHOW (1) has dropped to a favourable rating and can be considered among this company. COOLREE (4) shaped encouragingly on her second British start last time out. The addition of cheekpieces could lead to improvement.

I'M TOO TIRED (2) opened his account with hurdles recently and remains unexposed as a stayer on the flat. Worth chancing from this mark. ZEPHLYN (6) comfortably made all at Newcastle a fortnight ago. Subsequent 2kg rise looks perfectly fair but record away from that track is less appealing. EAGLE'S REALM (1) was on a four-timer when finishing second to the just mentioned in latest.
