It often takes a smart performer to land this. MIDNIGHT GUN (4) is a new recruit for Wathnan Racing who always looked to be doing enough out front winning on handicap debut at Newmarket. Further progress is expected now raised to 2000m and may replicate. Dangers include the wide-margin York winner SISYPHEAN (8) who steps up in both grade and trip off a 5kg higher mark while it's tough to ignore ARAGON CASTLE (6) on the back of his smooth success tackling a Class Two handicap at Hamilton in latest. APPROVAL (11) and BLAKE (10) also needs to be considered tackling this competitive heat.

The Aidan O'Brien trained colt did well to overcome a race that wasn't run to suit when a narrow winner of the G3 International Stakes at the Curragh in June. A competitive sprint. With plenty of early speed and the inside draw secured MC LOVEN (13) is considered. He battled on well after making the running to score over 1000m at Lingfield last time. Could prove tough to beat off the front. Progressive Irish sprinter KENDALL ROY (6) returned to winning ways with a smooth success at Cork (100m) last month. Must be respected despite being berthed out wide. SHAGRAAN (4) drops back to 1000m on the back of a good fourth-placed finish attempting a 1200m handicap at Windsor and cannot be ignored. Impressive Redcar (1000m) winner WE NEVER STOP (5) is also worth noting up in grade.

Team East are leading the Racing League after one meeting and they could enhance their position with CITY HOUSE (1) who showed plenty of ability at Newcastle AW finishing a solid third tackling a higher graded 1200m handicap. Finds a good opportunity. Top chance. SIOUX WARRIOR (10) ran well at Leicester last week when a close second contesting a 1000m novice event. Open to plenty of further progress now handicapping. Worth including. STANLEY SPENCER (11) scored by 0.75L a lower level handicap tackling this trip at Kempton AW. In the mix. BLUE DAY (3) is beginning to prove consistent. Interesting.

A competitive handicap. KING'S LYNN (4) is a former G2 winner. Ran well at Ascot when a solid 1.5L fifth tackling a 1000m Heritage Handicap. This is easier. Big chance. HYPERFOCUS (11) bids for a hat-trick after a nose victory attempting a lower level 1000m handicap at Chester. Set to go well again. INTERVENTION (12) finished a close third among this handicap company over 1000m at Doncaster. Maintaining a good AW record holds every chance. BOSH (3) placed second in a Chester 1200m handicap beaten only a nose and cannot be discounted.
