SOVEREIGN SPELL (6) lost little in defeat when denied a neck by a Charlie Appleby-trained newcomer on debut at Newmarket (Rowley) earlier this month. May take a step forward for that effort and go one spot better. Andrew Balding trains Space Blue's colt STELLAR SUNRISE (7) who could be the main danger. A two-year-old trained by Archie Watson will tend to know their job first time out and MISSION CLASSIFIED (4) warrants respect. GOLDWORK (3) looks set to improve following a fair eighth-place finish in a decent maiden at Ascot last month.

MR HAMPSTEAD (3) remains unexposed as a stayer after making a winning handicap debut by 5.5L over course and distance. Raphael Freire trains this gelded son of Galileo who could prove a useful performer tackling this trip and is taken to defy a 3.5kg rise in class. Topweight MANXMAN (1) finished a good runner-up behind a progressive stayer at Southwell (3300m) reappearing in April. Cannot be ignored with that run under his belt. Stepping up to 3200m for the first time may bring about further improvement from the retuning to action CONTACTO (5). Finished a solid second when last seen over 2800m at Haydock in September. ALMUHIT (6) needs to be considered revisiting the flat.

MOULIN BOOJ (6) continues to knock on the door in recent starts. Might have what it takes to go one better than when beaten a neck second at Musselburgh (1000m) early this month. MISS SHOW OFF (4) looks to hold leading claims on the back of a smooth success in a 1000m handicap at Salisbury nineteen days ago. MICHAELA'S BOY (2) finished a good fourth attempting this grade at Epsom a month back and must be considered eased 0.5kg. Others to note include CINQUE VERDE (8) and MARCHING MAC (5).

A competitive three-year-old handicap that may go the way of FORT GEORGE (6). This gelded son of Territories picked up nicely to make a winning handicap debut tackling the trip at Newmarket (Rowley) and could prove equal to a 2.5kg rise. Form of a TRANSPARENT (4) second at Newmarket (Rowley) took a boost when the third won subsequently at Ascot. Respect off a 1kg higher mark. SEA FOUNDER (8) needs to be considered making handicap debut after running out a well-backed winner of a 1600m Windsor maiden on return. SKY ADVOCATE (2) might also be in the mix.
