QUEEN ANNE STAKES (GROUP 1)

FLAT TURF GOOD FIRM Participants #11

Opening event of the Royal Ascot carnival sees the first four home from the G1 Lockinge Stakes re-oppose. ROSALLION (10) shaped as though he would take a sizeable step forward for the run when third that day. The winner of the G1 St James's Palace Stakes last year was returning from a year off at Newbury and can reverse form with conditions to suit. DANCING GEMINI (3) lost nothing in defeat when runner-up to LEAD ARTIST (7) with the former looking a touch unlucky being blocked and could prove the biggest threat while the latter will enjoy quick conditions and commands respect under Colin Keane. NOTABLE SPEECH (8) managed to win the G1 2000 Guineas. Provided his first outing in seven months when fourth attempting the G1 Lockinge Stakes and warrants respect racing for a top yard.

POSTMODERN (12) looked a potential star delivering a 5L debut success at Yarmouth in May. This Wathnan Racing colt quickened in fine style there and could prove capable of remaining unbeaten in this fascinating high-class two-year-old contest. Charlie Appleby trains MILITARY CODE (11) who battled on to beat a subsequent winner at this venue second time out. Must enter calculations now up to 1200m. The impressive Aidan O'Brien-trained debut winners GSTAAD (9) and WARSAW (21) both need to be included with the first-mentioned creating a nice impression winning when tackling this trip at Navan while the latter scored tackling 1000m at the same venue and might enjoy going up in distance.

This could prove a contest between English and Irish along with French 2000 Guineas winners. FIELD OF GOLD (1) was a touch unlucky when runner-up to RULING COURT (6) in the G1 English 2000 Guineas at Newmarket (Rowley) during May. Readily set the record straight in the Irish equivalent at the Curragh and holds potential to be top-class. Can reverse the outcome. The second mentioned is yet to be seen since his Newmarket (Rowley) success. Holds major form claims racing for top connections. Aidan O'Brien trains HENRI MATISSE (3) who won the 1600m G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp in May and commands respect with ground conditions to suit under Ryan Moore. RASHABAR (5) heads the remainder.

Booking Ryan Moore on the Willie Mullins trained REACHING HIGH (15) is of note. Denied a nose over 2400m at Leopardstown on his stable debut a month ago and can relish this much stiffer stamina test. Talented dual purpose horse EAST INDIA DOCK (7) readily got the better of a subsequent winner in the valuable Chester Cup (Handicap) last time. Remains unexposed on the flat racing for a yard that does well with this type of performer. Winner of the G1 Triumph Hurdle this year PONIROS (20) was successful on the flat for his previous connections and cannot be ignored from foot of the weights now back on the level under William Buick. Narrow last-time-out Goodwood (3200m) winner MANXMAN (8) stays well and could be in the mix. LIARI (10) might also go well.
