A small-field affair where tactics could come to the fore. THE FOUR SIXES (2) was below best last time posting a sixth over 3800m at Haydock Park after a Wetherby chase win. Set to bounce back and holds leading claims. AEROS LUCK (1) has yet to feature this campaign. Recorded a 19L sixth effort on latest appearance attempting course and distance. Better than recent form might suggest and represents the main danger. CHUMLEE (3) provided mixed efforts since resuming. Posted a fourth last start tackling track and trip after an earlier miss. Deserves another chance and cannot be omitted due to a scarcity of opposition.

GOLDEN POINT (2) bounced back last time scoring by 1.75L over 4700m here after a prior fifth. Can add again and holds leading claims advancing in distance. SUPER CITIZEN (3) turned things around on latest appearance attempting 5200m at Carlisle to score following a Sedgefield defeat. Current form reads well and represents the main danger. BARATABLET (2) resumed in style scoring by 4L over 4100m at Newcastle. Fitter now and looks tough to beat. Holds leading claims. MAGIC WAVE (5) returns from eight months away after a 9L placing attempting course and distance. Holds ability and represents the main danger. ESPRIT DU POTIER (1) provided mixed form this campaign pulling up last time contesting 4900m at Haydock Park after a 5L fourth at Ayr. If everything goes well warrants consideration. PARISIEN FASHION (6) has yet to fire this season. Posted a 41L sixth on latest appearance tackling 4000m at Musselburgh. Better expected and makes appeal.

INSTANT BOND (5) is back in form at the moment. Not disgraced when third here two weeks ago. Finds easier contest to compete in and from stall two could prove dangerous. MAPLEDURHAM (4) finished out of the frame delivering penultimate attempt then was beaten 2.75L fifth at Southwell All Weather five-and-a-half weeks ago. Switching to the yard of Ed Walker rates an interesting runner. Consider. ROOSKA (3) has not won for some time. Offered little last time out here at this track however freshened since and might be worth serious consideration. COOPERATION (1) needs to bounce back to form after several poor efforts.

WYVERN (4) wasn't without support here last week encountering a rapidly improving performer. Finished strongly on that occasion and if getting a strong pace to aim at (1) will be worth giving another chance. BOMB SQUAD (1) had to wait for his gap at Wolverhampton last time before finishing third when favourite. Remains in good form though is finding it hard to win. Warrants respect once more. LITTLE TED (2) made a pleasing return to AW last month tackling further here having produced a fair year on the turf. Not to be ruled out.
