NAZARE (2) maintains form bidding for a hat trick after back to back wins over 4100m at Market Rasen and Southwell with latest by a neck. Hard to dismiss holding leading claims. DOUGLAS HYDE (5) proved consistent posting consecutive thirds including most recently beaten 18L contesting 3900m at Chepstow. Form is solid and represents the main danger. MAURA JEANNE (7) improved markedly placing 1.75L second tackling 4700m at Hexham after an earlier Perth miss. Remains in the mix and warrants serious consideration. INIS OIRR (1) struggled of late finishing eighth then pulling up attempting 4700m at Musselburgh. Needs a sharp turnaround however does make for appeal.

SERIOUS CHALLENGE (3) was eased out on latest appearance hurdling over 3300m at Cheltenham. Forgive that performance as makes appeal with improvement expected. BRENTFORD HOPE (1) missed the frame in two runs this campaign including most recently contesting 3380m at Cheltenham. Best form could test these and warrants consideration. GEROMINO (4) returns after a long absence having produced a 13L fourth attempting 4000m at Aintree. Solid profile holding claims. COL DU PRE' (5) switched yards then unseated the rider last time over 3300m at Newbury. Capable of stepping forward representing a genuine threat.

Interesting edition of this juvenile hurdle. INNAMORATO (5) is the representative from the yard of Paul Nicholls who arrives after having two starts in France. Not seen since finishing third at Clairefontaine during August. Stable enjoying great success here this season and rates a major player. BELLATOR BULLET (1) makes stable debut for Dan Skelton having finished second on the level at Newmarket. Any runner from this stable warrants respect. MY KINDA GHAIY (9) was last seen at Kempton Park in October. Will have been well schooled. Watch the market for the Harry Derham trained contender WERTPOL (11). Rates an interesting runner.

KNOCK OFF SOXS (1) produced a sound performance on rules debut. Managed to take that form to the next level three weeks ago here winning stylishly under Harry Cobden. Interesting the yard don't claim weight off him in this and rates a strong form contender. LE BEAU MADRIK (2) got off the mark attempting a maiden hurdle last month at Newcastle and is the only other penalised runner in this. Might give a bold account. RELIGIOUS CROSS (12) won a point to point before finishing a sound second tackling a jumpers flat event here last month. Warrants respect. JUKEBOX D'EDDY (6) finally had a change of fortunes at Market Rasen four weeks ago when winning by 0.5L. With that confidence restored it would not be a surprise if he proves hard to beat once again. WEST ORCHARD (2) often gives a bold account with three wins from his last four starts. Provided a sound return to action at Wincanton four weeks ago and a big step forward is anticipated. FAITQUE DE L'ISLE (4) was expected to go close last time out but only finished third at Windsor. Interesting to see if this tight track will suit. One to note. GINGERBRED (1) is due a change of luck however needs to be at his best to do so.

Hurdle TURF GOOD Participants #8

Tight contest where the unexposed Paul Nicholls trained ZAOCHEN ENKI (1) will appreciate a drop in grade having been given a break since his last start. This looks more realistic and could prove hard to beat. GREEN SKY (5) rates highly on the back of his third place three weeks ago at Hereford. Adopts first time cheekpieces to aid her cause. INFERNO SACREE (7) continues to perform without getting his head in front. Managed to keep things moving forward at Plumpton four weeks back and remains of real interest here. BORDER GEM (8) continues as a maiden after seven starts. There is enough evidence to make her one worth noting.
