FIDDLERS GREEN (4) was beaten just a head at this track last time. Slight drop in trip will prove no issue and rates a leading chance of going one better now. SANDS OF HAVANA (11) just missed the frame when 3.5L fourth at Lingfield in latest. That was a good effort and can progress again. Worth keeping safe. VOIX DE BOCELLI (5) managed to place under this apprentice most recently. Had difficulty winning in the past however both successes have come attempting this grade and warrants a close look. SAX APPEAL (1) powered away for a 3L success at Southwell. That was impressive and now with a good apprentice booked to negate the weight rise holds leading claims having also won at this track previously. BASHFUL BOY (7) brings an admirable overall record and gets on particularly well with this jockey. FORCEFUL LADY (7) has been going well this AW season with a 1400m runner-up effort in a Wolverhampton nursery preceding a good 2.5L fifth over 1200m at Chelmsford City AW a month ago. Worth considering in this grade. ATHENIAN SPIRIT (1) showed plenty of ability two starts back running 1.5L second contesting a 1400m nursery at Wolverhampton AW. Open to further improvement. The unexposed BLUE MOUNTAINS (9) was not disgraced last month posting a 5L sixth in a 1700m nursery at Wolverhampton AW. Rates an interesting chance. MISS AYALA (6) found success attempting this journey at Chelmsford City AW three starts back. Next best.

NAVAL ENSIGN (1) maintains a progressive profile this AW. Gained a neck success in this handicap grade over course and distance on Saturday. Respect as set to follow up. SANDITON (3) went well in the same event on the weekend managing a solid third after an unlucky passage in the closing stages. Main danger. BLUE EMPRESS (5) showed ability at the same course meeting on Saturday when a close 2L fourth attempting a 1400m handicap here. Likely to build on that result. In the mix again. HENRY TUDOR (6) could show more following a 1200m handicap sixth at this circuit last month. Returning to 1400m might take a step forward. Next best.
