An intriguing contest dominated by Newmarket raiders. WAAKABB (6) gets the narrow verdict having kept on for a 3L third providing opening start on the all-weather three weeks ago (1400m). Will take plenty from that experience. PALACE LEGACY (4) appeared to get the message late when 1.75L back in third of five at Epsom tackling this trip nineteen days ago. Looks sure to feature. STORMY WINTER (5) is a Dark Angel colt making racecourse debut for the Saeed Bin Suroor stable whose newcomers are always worthy of respect. Monitor the market. A LA MONTAGNE (7) is notably the first foal out of Arc hero Alpinista. Exciting prospect who could improve with time.

ICONIC TIMES (1) landed a considerable gamble when scoring by 1L at Wolverhampton on Thursday (1400m). Can race off a much lower rating on turf courtesy of a less impressive record on this surface. Nonetheless finds a very modest race to follow up. RAIN CAP (3) is a four-time course winner who should benefit greatly for this drop into classified company. The biggest threat. WAIT FOR IT (4) made the frame on all three starts this season including latterly when 3L third at Musselburgh tackling the trip on Friday. One to consider. WITHOUT DELAY (5) arrives well below peak form. Brings a good past record at this venue and first-time visor could revive.

SLACK ALICE (5) has really turned a corner with obstacles this summer. Landed successive wins including most recently by a head in a Stratford hurdle (4400m) a month ago. Likely well treated back on the level. ZEPHLYN (4) has not been at his best of late. Twice a winner over course and distance last year however from higher ratings. Dangerous if putting best foot forward. FLEUR DE MER (3) is consistent. Again involved when only 3L from the winner at Carlisle trying 2200m latest start. Worth thought in a first-time visor. LILLISTAR (7) is another infrequent winner but could play a major role on her best form.

MISS RAINBOW (2) is given narrow preference maintaining solid course and distance record. Drawn nicely here for a front-runner and edging back down to her last winning mark is worth keeping on side.
