ZANTHAR (6) was disappointing in his last start after producing an encouraging debut effort over 1100m at Kenilworth. It must be noted that the form of his last outing has since been franked. He has a big chance back in this area and is the one to beat. SPRING TRADITION (4) ran a fair race in his last start over 1450m on the Inside course. He is better off over 1160m and should be the main threat to the top pick. TRUTH (5) is an unraced son of Heavenly Blue from the Candice Dawson stable with Gavin Lerena in the saddle. If not too green, he should start his career on a positive note. The betting market will be the best guide with regard to him and the other first-timers. ZIP CODE (7) is a son of Global View from the David Nieuwenhuizen stable with Kabelo Matsunyane up. He is well-related and should give a good account of himself.

VJ'S ANGEL (1) was an easy winner of her stable debut over 1200m at the Vaal. She showed good pace, found another kick, and won with a ton in hand. She is a progressive type and being the only winner in the race, she should follow up. PEARL IN HER CROWN (4) was in need of her debut effort over 1200m at the Vaal. She would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected, she may be the one to fill the exacta spot. STARS AND BRA'S (5) may not have seen out the 1400m last time. Her debut effort when fourth over 1000m was encouraging. She should be ideally suited to 1160m and must be included in all combinations. OCTOBER FAIR (1) is better than her last start with the blinkers fitted and the headgear has been quickly removed. It must be noted that the form of that race has since been franked. She is likely to settle back and can have the last say. CRIMSON FOREST (5) finished just behind the second pick last time. This is a similar lineup and she can run into the money this time. PRICELESS (4) ran a fair race against male company in her last start here on the Inside course. OPERA GLASS (2) is better than her last start. She finished runner-up behind the top pick in her penultimate run. Place claims again. DONNA MO (3) took the lead at the 200m mark last time but was caught in the shadow of the post. She meets a similar line-up this afternoon and merits healthy respect. POWER BROKER (5) is better than his last start over 1200m here on the Inside course. It must be noted that multiple horses from that form line have come out and won since. He likes it here and with Calvin Habib back into the saddle he may be hard to peg back. COSMIC STAR (8) showed good speed when winning his last start over 1000m on this course. It must be noted that the form of that race has been franked. He finished second behind the top pick in his penultimate run and is that runners' main threat again. AUSSENKEHR (7) ran a good race over 1200m on the inside course here last time out. He has won three times and finished second once from as many starts on this track over this distance. He is well weighted and cannot be ignored. SWING UPON A STAR (4) is better than his last start as the apprentice reported something to be amiss. His form prior was very good and he is worth another chance.

SILVER TUDOR (2) was running on strongly when second over 1200m on the Inside course here last time out. He carries joint top weight and will be doing his best work at the finish in this field. He can have the last say this time. SAN SIMON (7) moved up well last time but was outrun late and finished second. It must be noted that the form of that race has since been franked. He is a progressive type who can go one better in this. CIAN THE CONQUEROR (6) was a tad disappointing in his last start over 1450m on the Inside course. He won a good race over 1200m at the Vaal in his penultimate start and is worth another chance at some each-way value. ESQUEVELLE (3) has been thereabouts lately and was a fair third here last time out. His last victory came under Piere Strydom and it is that jockeys only ride for the meeting. Don't rule him out of winning this at a price.
