TOP DIVISION (8) is an unraced son of Gimmethgreenlight from the Johan Janse van Vuuren stable with Gavin Lerena in the saddle. If not in need of the run, he should start his career on a positive note. The betting market will be the best guide with regards to his chances. MASTER'S LADY (9) ran a good race on debut over 1160m on the Standside course. She took time to find her feet but stayed on well at the finish. She would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected should be fighting out the finish. BUMPS LAST GRIND (5) returns from a spell and is having his first run for Fanie Bronkhorst. If not in need of this outing, he should give a good account of himself. ALESIAN BEAU (1) has been in the market at his recent starts but yet to break through, the latest running fifth at Turffontein Standside. Worth another chance.

HAWKSDALE (7) produced an encouraging debut effort over this distance on the Standside course. It must be noted that the horse that finished third that day has come out and won since. He would have gained from the experience and with the natural improvement that is expected, she may be the one to beat. SUMMER WINTER (1) raced from just off the pace over 1000m last time but found one too good on the day. Has each-way claims. BILINGUAL (4) ran a good race when third over this distance on the Vaal Classic course last time. She has finished second over this course and distance previously. Can finish in the placings. WAITING ON CHARLIE(10) was her own worst enemy last time as she over raced in the early stages. She is having her peak run today and should be cherry-ripe. From her good draw of four she may be the one to side with. MISS TAKES (3) should have finished closer last time as he hung outwards over the final 300m. He finished third in his penultimate run over this course and distance. He does have a wide draw to overcome but gets the services of Gavin Lerena who will give him all the necessary assistance needed from the saddle. SASHA LEE (6) was a beaten favourite in her last start over 1300m. If finding the form of her penultimate run, she can finish in the money. KUDZU (1) ran a fair race over 1800m at the Vaal last time. He won his penultimate run over this course and distance. He jumps from pole position and with the services of the 1.5kg claiming apprentice Trent Mayhew can notch up his third-career victory. ESPINOZA (2) followed up his maiden victory with an equally impressive win over 1200m on this course. He tries the 1600m for the first time and if seeing out the extra distance on offer, he can bring up the hat-trick. OBSIDIAN (12) followed up his maiden win with a good third-place finish over 1400m on the Standside course. He takes on stronger rivals but has plenty of scope and should be well up to the task at hand. SPRING TRADITION (9) resumes from a spell. Started the last prep in good style when in the placings over 1400m at Turffontein Standside. Definite place claims.

LADY SABRINA (1) ran a good race when second over this distance on the Vaal Classic course last time. She raced from a handy position, moved up before getting outrun late. She has won once, finished second once and third once from four starts over this distance. She will strip much fitter and should give the males a decent run for their money. UNSOLVED RIDDLE (4) kept finding when winning his last start over this distance on the Vaal Classic course. He is in a good space and should be fighting out the finish. FLAG BEARER (6) was outrun late when third over 2400m last time. He is having his peak run today and should be chery-ripe. He is versatile and cannot be ignored. PANNING GOLD (2) ran a fair race when sixth over 2000m on the Standside course last time. He has won once, finished second once and third once from as many starts on this course.
